Orange is the New Purple

Let's make England Great again,
The Catholic Church is the God's hand.
We should take the Pope's words as our new orders,
Bring the havoc to them outsiders.

I am the bestest and the fastest,
And certainly the least racist.
Working hardest, earning honest,
Small hands but they are the largest.

The hierarchy is in your imagination,
It's a simple concept of deliberation.
It's the work of them outsiders,
To weaken us but they got zero chances.

King Edward is the man,
And he was my biggest fan.
The times seem tough but keep in mind,
Let's make England Great Again.

The black death was a conspiracy,
To divide us but it's just a fallacy.

We are stronger now because of it,
Our kingdom is destined to be.

The biggest and the greatest,
A shining light over the haters.
It's the rise of us merchants,
Forget the French, they are just jealous.

Care for those who spread them all,
The fake news I mean in the corridor.
All they do is talk and talk,
But the info they give is just all wrong.

Forget the Ottoman,
The Spanish is on the run,
And the jews well their time,
Will close as they try to rise above
Perhaps a wall is needed
In the ocean where it should be seated.
Look at the Constantinople,
Still looking though despite them all.

I have a daughter who is totally hot,
If it was the dark ages I don't know what.
Got a wife too and and I guess she is okay,
But time will tell if she is to stay

I am very high up in the monarchy,

Untouchable because I got more money.
I am a merchant and damn I am the best,
The most handsome in the west.

Military is compulsory,
But it's a blessing when you are royalty.
I imagine if I entered a war,
I'd be the one who won it all.

Only three days a week, do my labor.
That's all I ask as your lord of manor.
And watch a punishment when u take your time off,
It's amusing how they cut them heads off.

One day Imma build a big damn clock.
Gonna put my name right on the top.
Then my heritage will be done,
People be like, yeah, he is the one.

Donald J Trump is my name,
Everybody knows of my fame.
I am a god damn lord, cream of the top,
I do whatever I want, and it feels right.

Let's make England Great again,
The Catholic Church is the God's hand.
We should take the Pope's words as our new orders,
Bring the havoc to them outsiders.
