

ELIT 512 WESTERN EPIC TRADITION (404)

In this course, the student is to acquire the knowledge, competence, and skills to trace the development of western epic tradition (oral and written tradition) from the Classical period to the end of the 17th century on epic works from English literature and to develop a critical and comparative approach to these works.