

ELIT 525 CONTEMPORARY BRITISH DRAMA (THE 1950s TO THE PRESENT)
(404)

In this course, the student is to study the development of British drama, the representative movements and dramatists along with their works from the 1950s to the present in relation to the social, political, and cultural background of the period with a comparative and critical approach.