

ELIT 528 COMPARATIVE DRAMA (404)

In this course, the student is to compare the selected plays from different countries on the basis of theory, content and subject, and to examine the impacts of literary theories on drama and theatre by discussing the similarities and differences among these plays within different historical periods.