

ELIT 532 SATIRE (404)

In this course, the student is to learn the origins of satire literature and recognise the differences in the perception of satire in every age, and to make critical and comparative evaluations on representative texts by observing various representations of satire in literature.