

ELIT 541 BRITISH NEOCLASSICAL POETRY (404)

In this course, the student is to examine the development of English Neoclassical poetry in the context of the main principles of the Age of Enlightenment covering the period from the late 17th century to the mid-18th century, and to study and analyse the major works by the English Neoclassical poets in the light of this context.