

ELIT 543 VICTORIAN POETRY (404)

In this course, the student is to identify the poetic tradition of the age, to learn the cultural, historical and political background of the 19th century, and to examine how the changes in Victorian poetry are reflected in the poems through a study of some representative poets and their works.