

ELIT 546 COMPARATIVE POETRY (404)

In this course, the student is to compare the selected poems from different countries on the basis of theory, content and subject, to apply relevant theories to these poems, and to examine the impacts of literary theories on poetry by discussing the similarities and differences among these poems in different historical periods.