

ELIT 555 COMPARATIVE NOVEL (404)

In this course, the student is to compare the selected novels from different countries on the basis of theory, content and subject, and to examine the impacts of literary theories on the novel genre by discussing the similarities and differences among these novels within different historical periods.