

ELIT 556 TRAVEL LITERATURE (404)

In this course, the student is to identify travel literature as a literary genre and to examine travel writings of different cultures from the Middle Ages to the present in the framework of concepts such as cultural encounter, cultural alienation, and (anti-)colonial discourse with a comparative approach.