

ELIT 557 COMPARATIVE LITERATURE: THEORY AND PRACTICE (404)

In this course, the student is to understand and discuss comparative literary theory, to compare the works from different countries and cultures on the basis of theory, content and subject, to interpret, explain and discuss the similarities and differences among them within different historical periods.